Prime Minister of the Republic of Lithuania*

LETTER OF CONGRATULATIONS

Dear Grigory Kanovich,

art breeds talent, and it is the creative people that build a free, educated and happy society.

*Your remarkable cultural endeavours lend meaning to your dedication to literature, human being, society and the State. Your expressive and powerful word inspires film and theatre creators and passes on to future generations the important message and the emotional heritage.
Please accept my sincere congratulations on your 90th birthday and my gratitude for your invaluable contribution to fostering culture, perpetuating history and promoting Lithuania's name across the world.
May the Lord continue to smile upon you and bless you with the best of health for many years to come!*
